Only language materials for specific purposes in the approved target languages will be published but no general language material. Moreover, the authors should guarantee that the texts, pictures, audio and video files used do not infringe upon the copyrights of other authors bzw. that all copyrights issues have been resolved.